

Stephanie Rich, Ph.D.

in stephaniekrich | ✉ stephanie.ks.rich@gmail.com | skrich.github.io

SUMMARY

Researcher in Psychology with a doctoral degree in Linguistics leading projects on language comprehension, reading, and memory. Expertise in quantitative research and data analysis. Passionate about language access and education. Looking for opportunities to conduct impact-focused research.

SKILLS

- Data analysis and visualization using R and Python
- Synthesis of primary research across disciplines
- Expertise in quantitative research, experience with qualitative research
- Management of project workflow and communication across interdisciplinary teams
- Knowledge basis in language-related topics and analyses of systemic equity gaps
- Languages: English (fluent), French (intermediate - advanced), Russian (intermediate)

WORK EXPERIENCE

Researcher in the Cognitive Science of Language Comprehension

Postdoctoral: Psychology, Concordia University; Montreal, QC, Canada July 2024 - December 2025

Doctoral: Linguistics, UCSC; Santa Cruz, CA, USA Septemeber 2018 - June 2024

- Conducted behavioral research on language processing, reading, and memory in healthy adults, and sentence comprehension in persons with aphasia.
- Processed and analyzed large datasets using R and Python.
- Synthesized data across studies to create clear narratives in the form of literature reviews.
- Disseminated complex research in journal publications and presentations at international conferences.
- Led and worked on teams of researchers involved in Linguistics, Psychology, and Computer Science, managing workflow and communication using Google Suite.
- Prepared accessible reports for grant proposals to national and provincial funding (US and Canada).

University Instructor

Fall 2019 - Spring 2024; Summer 2025

UCSC; Santa Cruz, CA, USA

- Taught classes (10-40 students) in Linguistics (e.g. psycholinguistics, semantics, syntax) in both online and in-person instructional settings as the lead instructor (3 courses) or teaching assistant (8 courses).
- Applied evidence-based pedagogical strategies to design and administer a novel university course addressing inclusion of underrepresented groups in research.

Institutional Researcher

Summer 2022

Assessment for Learning Excellence & Equity Center; UCSC; Santa Cruz, CA, USA

- Analyzed rubric data to assess course effectiveness in achieving learning outcome targets.
- Compiled concise reports of data to highlight key insights for university administrators and professors.
- Created data-based actionable recommendations for curriculum development to be implemented by university departments.

Laboratory Manager

Summer 2016 - Summer 2018

University of California, Los Angeles; UCSC; Santa Cruz, CA, USA

- Managed scheduling, training, and skill development for teams of 10-15 research assistants at a time.
- Created timelines and work pipelines for all lab research projects using MS Office Suite and Trello.

Tutor Coordinator

Summer 2013

Literacy Volunteers of Massachusetts; Boston, MA, USA

- Managed relationships between volunteer tutors and adult learners who were either newcomers to the U.S. or underserved by their childhood education.
- Provided support in administering literacy and language evaluations to adult learners.

Research Intern

Summer 2011

Laboratory for Quantitative Medicine; Mass. General Hospital, Boston, MA, USA

- Analyzed large health datasets to investigate changes in survival trends for children with blood cancers.
- Published results in the Journal of Biomathematics communicating the importance of improved survival rates during the first two years following diagnosis.

EDUCATION

Ph.D. in Linguistics

2018 - 2024

University of California, Santa Cruz (UCSC); Santa Cruz, CA, USA

- Completed graduate-level coursework in Linguistics, Psychology, and Computer Science.
- Recipient of the National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowship.

B.A. in Linguistics & Psychology

2012 - 2016

University of Massachusetts, Amherst; Amherst, MA, USA

- Minors: Latin Language & Culture; Slavic & East European Studies.
- Graduated summa cum laude from the Commonwealth Honors College.